Carbon County

Located in southcentral Montana, Carbon County is Montana's 25th most populous with 8,080 residents, according to the 1990 Census.

Red Lodge, the county seat, is the state's 33rd largest city with a population of 1,958. It's named after the Crow Indians' red lodges of teepees. Red Lodge is located in the Beartooth/Absaroka Mountain Range and considered by many to be the most beautiful gateway to Yellowstone National Park. The "Home of Champions Rodeo" is held yearly in July and the "Festival of Nations" in August. Sports enthusiasts enjoy golfing and skiing.

According to the U.S. Bureau of the Census, median income for Carbon County households in 1989 was $19,042. The county is 2,062.3 square miles in area; 2,048.1 square miles in land area and 14.2 in inland water area.

County residents experience the four distinct seasons. Average monthly temperatures range from a low of 10 degrees below in January to a high of 80 degrees above in July. The annual average precipitation is 24 inches and the average growing season 120 days.
